UP TO THE ARMENIAN REFUGEE CAMP.

Monday Jan. 21, 1919.
pals, Gilbert, Howard, Aloojan, and myself started out bright early Sunday morning to pay a visit to the refugee camp which is on the Trans-Siberian railway 14 miles out, and which is controlled by the American Red Cross. Walked into town facing a howling wind and weather 25 below zero didn't the first part of the journey any easier; in fact, we debated about taking the trip several times on to town but we stuck to it, stopped at the "American Grill", restaurant on the wayside, and few hot-cakes and a little coffee, we were thoroughly warmed up headed up to the "Y" Hut and up Aloojan's friend, who knew us out to the camp and who, like an, is of Armenian decent. From there we went to the Railway station and caught the first train out. I describe the Station as being a stately building in size, and full as far as the architectural concerned, and that at present in need of repairs; nor will I describe a Russian train as are so far different from an American train that it would take upon pages to give you all justing of what one is like. I said on; well, I should have used CROWDED. You have seen our & Bailey circus crowd. That is just a mild comparison of either, or the rough and tumble crowds that try to get on street cars whenever they come to town. There were six in our bunch huskies like myself, so we got left; no we were not rough, up to Russian style. Pushed a little extra strategy worked up to the front and into a (A fellow without a push business in Siberia). After the race started and the jam had down, we found ourselves or rather herded as cattle in a But we were out for excitement didn't mind. After about an slow dragging, we finally got destination. We started out at the Camp which is about a mile from depot. There are three camps out there; one of them; one of Jewish; and one of ours who were lucky enough to the horrible Turkish Massacre. Be it for the latter camp first as the only one we got to visit was stated later in this letter. Are 300 Armenians housed in stone buildings used formerly as barracks. As one to one of these buildings he immediately notice that the whole is partitioned off into small leaving a narrow hallway the length of the building. One of these rooms is about 20x10 the inside one will find crude conditions used for beds, tables or necessary furniture, and every these rooms house from 6 to 8 At the farther end of the is a large kitchen where they food three times a day. The light is indeed pitiful. The ladies are tall of stature and complexion and by the expression of any of their faces one guesses that they must have a great deal of hardship bearing. The tales these kind looking women can tell will fill pages in history only to the Turk. I remember the Massacre at the time it was on but never once pictured actually saw it yesterday. They had clothes a plenty, thanks American Red Cross, yet they happy; how could they be? 600 miles from home and that Massacre seems to be always on. I was told that not one camped out there was fortunate to have every member of his escape the beastly claw of the One Armenian who could talk good English related to me tale that I shall not forget to day. He had photographs anti-his statements although none as the look upon the my Armenian lady was proof. As I stated before, is of descent and can talk that fluently. Long ere we got down the hallway he was followed surrounded by his fellow speaking at once and asking By finding one of their Dear Old U. S. A. uniform only adored him. Showed their true appreciation for what America and The Red Cross were doing for them.

I was told that the older generation is anxious to get back to the dear homes they were so cruelly robbed of, which is quite natural; while the younger generations, only ambition is to get to AMERICA. America will indeed be lucky in securing them as her citizens, as I know that without a shadow of doubt, they will make true, ideal and loyal citizens.

The following will explain why we were not able to visit any of the other camps. After we got there we learned that the Red Cross was giving a Christmas tree and that the children were going to give a little programme and nothing else would do except we Americans must stay for same; and to tell you the truth, I was eager for the opportunity. Ere I knew it we were rushed into one end of the Barracks, where they had constructed a little stage and a few rough benches, and found myself sitting in the front row. I objected to this but found it useless and so sat down, my estimation for the Armenians raised another notch. The first few acts were either recitations or playlets none of which I could understand in words, but each in expression told me they were about nothing else THAN THE TURKISH MASSACRE. The whole room was in tears most of the time. As for myself, I might be a hard-boiled Sergeant but I will admit I was moved to tears quite frequently. To my surprise, a little tot about 6 years old got up and recited a few lines in English, and to my greater surprise the whole house got up and sang "MY COUNTRY 'TIS OF THEE". I am no singer and very seldom do I try to indulge in song, but in this case I don't know if it was pride for my country or for this oppressed yet intelligent race that made me burst out at the top of my voice. A race of people that had only three months of English schooling and can make a showing like that made yesterday can't help but come to its own in this world, and I will readily predict that the dark days for the Armenians are a thing of the past.

We had to catch a 4 o'clock train, so couldn't stay until the performance was over, but had to leave this pitiful place after spending one of the most enjoyable and interesting days since leaving God's Country.

As I was going homeward I thanked the Good Lord that I was an American and a member of the Red Cross, and in a position to help people of this kind.

Mr. Rolf E. Bohmfalk,

My Dear Parents:-

Will try and write you all a few lines this evening. I haven't written for such a long time, the last time I wrote home was when I was still in LeMans. I have been in several different places since I last wrote home. We took the train from LeMans to Lasanze, from Lasanze we hiked to Maigne some 8 kilo's from Lasanze, stayed there a little over two weeks, and hiked back to Lasanze on the 19th and stayed there several days. From there we hiked 32 kilo's to a short stay, only over night, they took some of us 5 kilo's to Dom Front, there we were attached to different outfits, over a thousand 42nd men. I am attached to the M. G. Co., 387 Inf. The Company I am in is not in Dom Front, but in a small town some 2 kilo's from Dom Front.

Well, how are you all getting along? Hope fine, like I. Myself and another boy are tonight with some French people here. We come down here almost every evening to get us milk and bread and to do our writing. They certainly are some nice people.

Now, since I am attached to a new outfit I might be able to get some mail from you all. But we are liable to move around quite a bit. I sure would love to hear from home again.

I haven't written to Janie and Lina for a long time. Will write them some other time as I can't write them tonight.

When you see Geo. and Nora give them my best regards, will also write them some time. I am getting so lazy in writing since I can't get any mail from home. I still haven't received a letter from home.

This morning we were inspected by General Pershing. This is the first time I have seen him.

I haven't seen or heard anything of Leo or Harry. When you write me, write about them too. Am anxious to know how they are.

I have a card here of Lasauze; will send it with this letter.

I think I will have to close for this time as my partner is already waiting for me.

With very much love to all,

Your son,
Pvt. EMIL BOHMFALK,

To Entertain the Soldier Boys.

The ladies of the Methodist Church will take pleasure in entertaining the returned soldiers and sailors, also the members of the Methodist Church at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fly on next Monday evening, the 10th instant. We shall be pleased to have each guest of honor to appear in full uniform and be accompanied by his mother and best girl friend. A hearty welcome is also extended to any soldier or sailor friend who may be a guest in our midst at this opportune time.

We are proud of our boys and want them to realize and know that the Church feels deeply interested in their social welfare. We only wish that every one who responded to their country's call from Hondo could be present to receive the glad hand of welcome, for we are conscious of the fact that "In the world's broad field of battle, In the bivouac of life, They were not like dumb, driven cattle, But were heroes in the strife."

To Try For Oil.

If the plans of a few progressive spirits of Medina County materialize an effort will soon be made to locate the oil pool underlying some part of this county. Oil outcroppings at many places have long convinced geologists that they are seeps from a pool and numerous efforts have been made to locate it, but only in a half-hearted way so far.

At a conference for that purpose, held here Wednesday afternoon, tentative plans were laid for organizing and applying for a charter for a $100,000.00 Oil corporation. It is planned to sell stock in the company and to drill at least two wells to a depth of not less than 4000 feet. The location of the wells will be determined after a careful inspection of the Company's holdings by oil experts.

The promoters of the enterprise are Joe Ney, J. M. Finger, Chas. Finger, E. R. Leinweber, R. J. Zerr, R. J. Noonan, S. A. Jungman and F. A. Brown.

Corn planters are busy all over this section now. A larger acreage is being planted to this crop than usual, due partly to the fine season now in the ground and partly to the scarcity of that commodity for the past several years.

The army and naval forces are being rapidly demobilized and soon all our boys will be at home, and we trust never again to be called out to defend the honor of the flag. Medina county boys did their duty and we all rejoice to see them returning to civil life.

Mrs. Dr. W. H. Smith is in receipt of a message from Dr. Smith notifying her that he is en route home. As a large number of troop ships are scheduled to arrive in American ports today it is probable Lieut. Smith will set his feet on the soil of his native land again today. As it is probable he will have to go into detention for several days it is quite probable some little time will yet elapse before he reaches home.

It may not be generally known that the Washington government has increased the amount any one person can place in the postal savings department of the post office department. Heretofore $1,000 was the limit any one could deposit. It is now possible for any one desiring to do so to increase their deposits to $2,500—the maximum allowance to any one depositor. Any one to whom this class of Uncle Sam's securities appeals can get full information by applying to Postmaster Chaney.

Oscar Schmidt, looking fine and fit and entirely recovered from his wound, came out from San Antonio last Saturday, having been honorably discharged from the service. Oscar was in the great St. Mihiel battle, the first major engagement in which the American boys took part, and was wounded by shrapnel on the 17th of September.

After several months in the hospital in France he was sent across something more than a month ago, being detained for a period of eleven days in a detention camp near New York before being sent to San Antonio where he received his final discharge. Like all the soldier boys, he is glad to get back into civil life, a desire he says that is universal with our army overseas, even the regulars being desirous of quitting the service. Oscar suffered a great deal from sea-sickness on the return voyage and says if he had his option of again making the voyage or going into another battle he would accept the latter every time.

Bee-Keepers Meeting

At 8:30 o'clock p.m. the Beemen met at the Woodmen Hall in LaCoste and after reading the minutes of the last meeting at D'Hanis, the election of officers was held with the following result: A. E. Saathoff of D'Hanis, president, and Louis Biedger of LaCoste, secretary and treasurer.

The new ruling of the Law of Bee Diseases was read by the secretary and beemen were urged to ask for an early inspection of their bees so their honey shipments will not be held back for the want of Inspection Certificates, which will be necessary on all honey shipments of the future. Several of the bee-men and ladies present requested their bees to be inspected to lighten as much as possible the work of the County inspector. The speakers from other points did not make their appearance, therefore the meeting adjourned. A meeting will be announced after H. B. Parks of the Extension Dept. of the A. & M. College will have been over the county to arouse the bee-keepers.—LaCoste Ledger.

Forgot What He Needed.

From the Republican, Mt. Giliad, Ohio: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now I know!" "What is it you are looking for," we inquired.

"My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except 'Chamberlains'. I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores, that they post their clerks, and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substituting is permitted, to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers.

Mr. and Mr. Alex Jungmann and children were visiting relatives at Castroville Sunday.—LaCoste Ledger.

For Diseases of the Skin.

Nearly all diseases of the skin such as eczema, tetter, salt rheum and barber's itch are characterized by an intense itching and smarting, which often makes life a burden and disturbs sleep and rest. Quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Salve. It allays the itching and smarting almost instantly.

Civil you may, ever criticise.

The Many Mysteries of Nature

BY L. W. BOWER, M. D.

You can take an onion seed and a pansy seed, and plant them side by side in the same spot of ground. In one case, you get an onion, with its peculiarly strong odor, and in the other you get a flower of rare beauty. You can plant a poppy seed and get opium (a dangerous, habit-forming drug), or you can plant a rhubarb seed and get something that helps constipation. No scientist, living or dead, can explain these mysteries of Nature. Behind the invisible life germ in each seed is hidden the deep secret that nobody understands. Everything growing out of the ground seems intended for some use in establishing natural conditions. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all through treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakening drains, bearing-down pains, periodical irregularities, pelvic inflammations, and for the many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made of lady's slipper root, black cohosh root, unicorn root, blue cohosh root and Oregon grape root. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it.

Favorite Prescription should have the full confidence of every woman in America because it contains no alcohol and no narcotic. Dr. Pierce knew, when he first made this standard medicine, that whiskey and morphine are injurious, and so he has always kept them out of his remedies. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. Tablets.

Bad Taste In Your Mouth.

When you have a bad taste in your mouth you may know that our digestion is faulty. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will usually correct the disorder. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels. You will find this to be one of the best medicines you have ever become acquainted with.

I criticise creation, not by finding fault.—Michael Angelo.

For A Bad Cold.

Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has stood the test of time and can be depended upon.

All smoking tobaccos use some flavoring. Encyclopaedia Britannica says about the manufacture of smoking tobacco, "... on the Continent and in America certain 'sauces' are employed... use of the 'sauces' is to improve the flavor and burning qualities of the leaves."

Tuxedo uses chocolate—the purest, most wholesome and delicious of all flavorings! Everybody likes chocolate—we all know that chocolate added to anything as a flavoring always makes that thing still more enjoyable. That is why a dash of chocolate added to the most carefully selected and properly aged burley tobacco, makes Tuxedo more enjoyable.
